Accident Medical Expense Coverage

Members choose $5,000, $7,500 or $10,000 of AME coverage

Accident Medical Expense(AME) Benefit Amounts for Members and their spouses or domestic partners and their dependent children:

$5,000 subject to a deductible of $195

WBA will pay $95 of your deductible as a member benefit

$7,500 or $10,000 subject to a deductible of $275

WBA will pay $175 of your deductible as a member benefit

This benefit will reimburse medical expenses up to the maximum elected if accidental bodily injury causes an insured person to first incur medical expenses for care and treatment of the accidental bodily Injury within 90 days after an accident. The benefit amount for Accident Medical Expense is payable only for medical expenses incurred within 52 weeks after the date of the accident causing the accidental bodily Injury.

The benefit amount is subject to a deductible. The deductible will be deducted from any benefit amount for Accident Medical Expense that the insurance company pays. This deductible applies separately to each insured person and each accident.

Excess Provision (applicable to insured persons in all states except California, Connecticut, Florida, Indiana, Maryland, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, South Dakota, or Vermont): the Accident Medical Expense benefit is payable on an excess basis. The insurance company will determine the reasonable and customary charge for the covered medical expense. It will then reduce that amount by amounts already paid or payable by any other plan and will pay the resulting amount less the deductible.

Covered Charges

Treatment, services or supplies incurred for but not limited to:

- Medical care and treatment by a Physician;
- Hospital room and board and inpatient and outpatient care;
- Prescription drugs and medicines;
- Diagnostic tests and x-rays;
- Emergency transportation;
- Dental care and treatment due to accidental bodily Injury;
- Physical therapy;
- Rental of durable medical equipment;
- Artificial limbs and other prosthetic devices;
- Orthopedic appliances or braces;
- Eyeglasses, contact lenses and other vision or hearing aids.

Many health insurance plans do not pay for the costs of emergency room visits or accidents until their deductible is satisfied.

Limitation on Accident Medical Expense

The Benefit Amount for Excess Accident Medical

- Expense does not apply to charges and services:
- For which an Insured Person has no obligation to pay
- For any injury where worker's compensation benefits or occupational injury benefits are payable
- For any injury occurring while fighting, except in self-defense
- For treatment by a person employed or retained by the Policyholder
- For treatment involving conditions caused by repetitive motion injuries, or cumulative trauma and not as the result of an accidental bodily Injury
- For treatment that is educational, experimental or investigational in nature or that does not constitute accepted medical practice

This insurance applies only to medically necessary charges and services.

- An Insured Person's emotional trauma, mental or physical illness, disease, pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage, bacterial or viral infection, bodily malfunctions or medical or surgical treatment thereof. (This exclusion does not apply to an Insured Person's bacterial infection caused by an accident or by accidental consumption of a substance contaminated by bacteria.)
- An Insured Person's commission or attempted commission of any illegal act, including but not limited to any felony
- Any accident, accidental bodily Injury or Loss when: 1) the United States of America has imposed any trade or economic sanctions prohibiting insurance of an accident, accidental bodily Injury or Loss; or 2) there is any other legal prohibition against providing insurance of any accident, accidental bodily Injury or Loss.
- Any occurrence while an Insured Person is incarcerated after conviction
- An Insured Person being intoxicated, at the time of an accident. Intoxication is defined by the laws of the jurisdiction where such accident occurs
- An Insured Person being under the influence of any narcotic or other controlled substance at the time of an accident. (This exclusion does not apply if any narcotic or other controlled substance is taken and used as prescribed by a Physician.)
- An Insured Person being engaged in or participating in a motorized vehicular race or speed contest
- An Insured Person participating in military action while in active military service with the armed forces of any country or established international authority. (This exclusion does not apply to the first 60 consecutive days of active military service with the armed forces of any country or established international authority.)
- An Insured Person traveling or flying on any aircraft engaged in Specialized Aviation Activities which includes acrobatic or stunt flying, racing, endurance tests, flight on a rocket propelled or rocket launched aircraft, any test for experimental purpose, and any flight which requires a special permit or waiver from a governmental authority having jurisdiction over civil aviation, whether or not such permit or waiver is granted
- An Insured Person's suicide, or attempted suicide while sane or intentionally self-inflicted injury
- A declared or undeclared War

Exclusions

No benefits will be paid for any accident caused by or resulting from any of the following:

- An Insured Person being in, entering, or exiting any aircraft:
a) owned, leased or operated by the Policyholder or on the Policyholder's behalf; or b) operated by an employee of the Policyholder on the Policyholder's behalf
- An Insured Person riding as a passenger in, entering, or exiting any aircraft while acting or training as a pilot or crew member. (This exclusion does not apply to passengers who temporarily perform pilot or crew functions in a life threatening emergency.)
